

Central Europe

Please pray for:

- Cara Tyler (Germany). She is experiencing some complications from a broken bone in her hand. It's not healing properly and could require surgery and re-breaking the bone.
- Direction for Mike & Cara Tyler as they are seeking guidance for a new church plant in a part of Dresden, Germany, called Schönfelder Hochland.
- A new youth ministry being raised up in the Bad Duerkheim (Germany) church plant.
- Several people occasionally attending the Bad Duerkheim (Germany) church plant to fully surrender their lives to Christ.
- Children's evangelistic outreach workers to be raised up for the Bad Duerkheim (Germany) church plant.

Praise report:

- Paul & Mechthild Clark (Germany) have purchased an excellent building, in which to hold church, located only 50 meters from the City Square. They are also grateful for a young man that has come from the German Bible School who desires to establish a youth ministry in their church. In a short time, the church plant in Bad Dürkheim has established a great relationship with the mayor and other city officials.

Culturally Diverse Communities (CDC)

Please pray for:

- A Muslim and a Sikh in the U.K., and others like them, who have Bibles. May the power of the Word lead them to knowing Christ.
- The Cannons in Madrid, Spain, who are contacting Muslims around their center, using surveys to ask them their thoughts about key ideas.
- The Cannons to receive permits from the city regarding summer outreach events.
- Guidance and favor in pricing for a facility to house a large worldwide conference regarding Muslim ministry in the future.
- Christians who are teaching languages to immigrants. May the Holy Spirit open hearts as teachers share the gospel as opportunities present themselves.

Northern Europe

Please pray for:

- Phil and Katja Zarns' (Sweden) new international church plant among university students.

- A pastor's wife in the U.K. struggling with breast cancer.

Praise reports:

- Mike and Shelia Fitzgerald (Iceland) will celebrate the tenth anniversary of Lindin Radio in the Faroe Islands this month.
- John and Susan Kay Blair (Scotland), after months of seeking, have found an adequate location in which to meet for their new church plant.

Southeastern Europe

Please pray for:

- Continued wisdom for the church plant in Skopje, Macedonia, among Muslim Albanians.

Southern Europe

Please pray for:

- The budget of Randy & Diane McGehee (Italy) to be raised so they are able to return to the country of their calling by the end of this month.

- Larry and Melinda Henderson (Canary Islands). They are asking prayer partners to stand in prayer with them for the new building for the International Church in Las Palmas. This building is key to the church moving forward. Please pray with us that legal documents will go through and the next steps can be taken to begin remodeling.

- A request from Nadine Fabbri (Spain). She is asking that we pray for students that committed their lives to Christ this semester. May they continue to faithfully serve Him as they return to their homes in America. Nadine is also asking prayer for the spiritual growth of a young lady who came out of a homosexual lifestyle.

Praise reports:

- Randy & Diane McGehee (Italy) are praising God for the 26 altar responses to salvation they have seen this past month during their missions' service iteration process.
- Praise God for the incredible things God has done with Students for Christ—Seville, Spain, this semester with the international students. There were salvations, rededications, and many lives changed for the Kingdom.

Western Europe

Please pray for:

- The visas to be granted by the Luxembourg government to the Scott Reynolds' family.

- Henry and Karen Linderman (Paris, France) and their New Life congregation as they have a critical need of facilities for the church.

- The Bridge international church planting team as they search for meeting facilities in the northwest suburbs of Paris.

- The Azusa Bible School in the Netherlands as leadership contemplates its future direction. As a small school, the financial challenges are enormous.

- The following missionary families as they seek the financial support needed to arrive to their respective countries of calling: Dan & Silvana Place (Belgium); Ed & Kirsten Buck (France); Jason & Celeste Brown (France), and Charles & Amanda Gravely (Belgium).

Praise report:

- Kent & Leslie Linneweh (The Netherlands) are praising God for the opportunity to plant an international church in Maastricht, Netherlands. Please pray for favor among the local people.
